A GENERAL INTRODUCTION TO ANTI-ANTI

This is our first issue, so with that in mind it may not be the best or most original fanzine around town but hopefully it will get better with time and experience on our part. your patience is appreciated.

There are currently three people on our staff. All of us are in school and none of us have jobs, so obviously we cant afford to lose large sums of money doing this 'zine. But we dont make any profit at all either. The result is a smaller than usual fanzine for 25¢. The size will hopefully increase as we go on but the cost will remain the same.

The interviews are all done through the mail, so even if the band being interviewed hasnt been in town for a while it doesnt mean that our interview isnt up to date.

Our regularity will depend on how often shows are going on in town and how often we can afford to photo-copy it. But its safe to say once every 6 weeks or so.

Well thats it-OI! OI! OI!

Here is where we would like to thank a lot of people who have helped us with our first issue. There is a lot of them too. So lets get to it.

Thankyou to the following people:

Maureen and Bernadette-without their existance and support this zine would be nothing.

Art-who has helped us a lot and helped the whole punk scene.

Kurt and Rob-who gave us a lot of great ideas we plan to use in ANTI-ANTI.

Jack Rabid-who has given us advice and helped with an upcoming interview.

Chuck and Kelly-for delivering my baby.

and of course

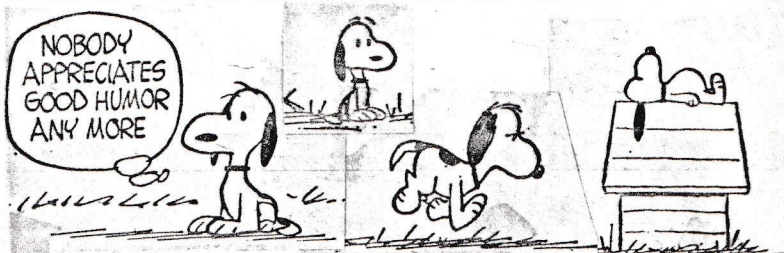

Sue,Dave,Eilene,and Bee Bee-for about one million things-- TBA TBA TBA 1234

And FRED FLINTSTONE + BARNEY RUBBLE- for inspiration.

WHICH WAY TO KENNSINGTON?

MINOR THREAT ^{D.C.} X S.S. DECONTROL ^{BOSTON}

NOV 20th BUFF HALL
CAMDEN N.J.
$5.00

Yes, Ian did sing a song himself!
I was surprised and pleased that Ian was able to get on stage after what happened with the car accident.
The back of his head was all puffed and bloody from the accident.

Minor Threat

did all of their great songs including
Straight Edge, In My Eyes, Bottled
Violence, and all the rest of them.

SS Decontrol totally blew me away! Springa was incredible!!
He was flying off the stage as often as any fan. Im still wondering how they got back to Boston after the van got totaled.
This band is worth going to Boston to see. In my eyes they were the best band of the night.

FOD-Crib Death-and Agnostic
Front, also played that night and they too were great. Thanx to the BYO for putting this show together.

WHAT do you categorize your band as?

CB-Because we don't want to be stereotyped or classified.

AA-Do you have any complaints about the Philly scene?

CB-Yes! NO unity, too much anarchy, no underage clubs, most girls are dykes (lesbian origin).

CB-Overly exploited by the media. too many cliques.

AA-Is there any city besides Philly you would like to play?

CB-Any and everywhere.

AA-Are you finding it easier to get places to play?

CB-No way.

AA-How often do you practice?

CB-Yes, but we dont care.

AA-Is this the bands original name?

CB-Yes but we came from bands that wed like to forget. Hi mom!

AA-Are the plans for a Crib Death 45 becoming more realistic as time goes by?

CB-Yeah, if someone gives us 800 bucks to do one (we except charity and Visa or Mastercharge)

DAVE BIRTWELL

At this point i asked Crib Death to give us their feelings on some basic subjects. Heres the responses i recieved.

AA-How does the band feel about drugs and the Straight Edges?
Dave B. Drugs arent the problem. Peoples overabuse of them is.
Dave R. I like getting messed up, but not if i have to play or have any other responsibilities.

Edge Some drugs are ok but i wont spend money on them.

Rich & Ethan- Drugs really suck! Wheres the beer?

Straight Edge is ok if you dont ram it down our throats.

JIM - FOD - TAKEN AT CAMDEN

EDGE - CRIB DEATH

The atmosphere of the night was more of a party than just another show. And it should always be that way! A fight almost did occur but fortunately both parties involved were mature enough to calm down and not ruin the night for everyone else. The place rally got full towards the end of the night. I wish we could rent this place out more often for shows.

The new issue of Die Young was out New Yrs and is it ever great Full of pictures and show reviews of MDC-Minor Threat-Misfits-the New Decontrol-and more. It has also got a hilarious comic that has a punk stalking Quincy, Icepick in hand. Whats going on with Savage Pink? Hope to see their new issue soon.

AS THE WORLD BURNS. 🌍

I just got done watching the world news and you wouldn't believe what I saw. They were having a report on Poland's new problem. It seems that Poland is adopting "all of western civilizations problems". These included drug abuse and of course, punk rock. They showed footage of a show and the band was ripping into a song while all the "problems" were slamming. POLISH PUNK RULES! I wonder if they have ever heard of American Dilemma or FOD.

American Dilemma played well, considering that their bass player got hit by a truck or something, and the replacement only had one day to practice all the material. There wasn't too many people in the place when they played, (they were the first band up). They had a good sense of humor and I admire them for giving it their best shot. They almost did a killer version of Batman!

My camera ran out of film, so I don't have any photos of Little Gentlemen or Informed Sources. They both put on very good shows and were very well received. My apologies to both bands. It was Little Gentlemen's best show even though they had a thousand problems with equipment. Y Di also were great and did a real thrashable type set. Their show was a little marred by technical problems but I liked them all the same.

As of this time Anti-Anti's future price is not certain. We are having problems with our printer who gave us a price and now has drastically increased it. If this issue is not the original set price of 25¢ we are truly sorry. Don't look for our 2nd issue for a while but hopefully it will eventually come out. Wish us luck.
